The Children's Museum Announces Wolf Night 2007

West Hartford, CT (November 21, 2007)... On Friday, December 14, 2007, at 6 p.m., The Children's Museum will be sponsoring Wolf Night 2007, an evening of wolf discovery.

Presented in conjunction with The Wolf Conservation Center, www.nywolf.com, Wolf Night 2007 includes an up-close encounter with Atka, a live Artic Grey Wolf and a fascinating and informative presentation about the lives, history, and predatory roles of wolves.

Admission to Wolf Night 2007 is $10 for members and $12 for non-members. Pre-registration is required. To register, please call 860.231.2830 X 44, or e-mail Events@TheChildrensMuseumCT.org

Established in 1927, The Children's Museum is a one-of-a-kind museum featuring hands-on science exhibits, live animals, digital space and science shows, and programs for the whole family. The Museum includes the United Technologies Wildlife Sanctuary, the new Travelers Science Dome at the Gengras Planetarium, Roaring Brook Nature Center in Canton, CT, and The Children's Museum Preschool, one of the oldest preschools in the country. The Children's Museum serves close to 160,000 people annually, is the fifth oldest children's museum in the country, and is Connecticut's largest museum. Located at 950 Trout Brook Drive in West Hartford, the Museum is accessible from I-84 Exit 43 and offers free parking. For more information and specific show schedules, visit the website: www.TheChildrensMuseumCT.org
