

Celebrating the Season with The New Children's Museum

WEST HARTFORD, Conn (November 23, 2015) –The New Children's Museum is getting into the holiday spirit with upcoming family programs that connect learning and fun.

- Let it Snow! The popular planetarium show plays daily following Thanksgiving and continues through January 1st. Don't miss your chance to sing-a-long to holiday favorites accompanied by stunning visuals.
- Mitten Tree. Help those less fortunate by donating an item to the Museum's Mitten Tree. Families can receive one free ticket to see Let it Snow in the planetarium for their donation. New hats, mittens, gloves, scarves and socks happily accepted.
- The Third Annual Great Gingerbread Engineering Challenge. On Saturday, December 19th, gather your family and put your engineering (and candy) skills to the test. Every family is a winner! Pre-registration is required. Contact our Registration Department at (860) 231-2830 ext. 44 for more details or go online.
- Countdown to Noon Years. Celebrate 2016 a little early with the Countdown to Noon on December 31st. Stop by the Museum for a celebration and activities starting at 10am, all free with general admission or membership
- Winter Science Camp. With kids out of school for the holiday season, the Museum has fun and educational day camps planned that keep kids in Preschool through Grade 5 learning and entertained.

For further information on all holiday programming, please visit www.TheChildrensMuseumCT.org. Registration for programs can also be done through the Registration Department at (860) 231-2830 ext. 44.

The New Children's Museum is positioned as a premier STEAM education center, integrating science, technology, engineering, art, and math. Home to over 100 live animals, the Museum features hands-on science exhibits, out-of-this-world digital planetarium shows, and programs for young children and families.

The New Children's Museum and Roaring Brook Nature Center are the region's premiere destinations for science and nature exploration. The New Children's Museum and Preschool are located at 950 Trout Brook Drive in West Hartford and Roaring Brook Nature Center is located at 70 Gracey Road in Canton. More information is available at www.TheChildrensMuseumCT.org.
