

The New Children's Museum elects Christie Pascavis to Board of Trustees

WEST HARTFORD, Conn (March 12, 2015) –The New Children's Museum today announced that Christie Pascavis has been elected to the institution's Board of Trustees.

Pascavis of Simsbury, Conn joins board member Richard Wong as a member of the Strategic Planning Committee for The New Children's Museum and Roaring Brook Nature Center.

"Ms. Pascavis's career in preschool education along with her extensive corporate career in training, learning, and development brings a new perspective to the board as we continue the Museum's mission to create lifelong learners in STEAM studies," said Board Chair Peter Stevens.

The New Children's Museum is the region's leading STEAM education resource. The Museum integrates science, technology, engineering, art, and math into hands-on, interdisciplinary activities that foster creative thinking, academic achievement, and a spirit of lifelong learning.

The Museum is home to over 100 live animals, hands-on science exhibits, out-of-this-world digital planetarium shows, and programs for younger children and families. The New Children's Museum and Roaring Brook Nature Center are the region's premiere destinations for science and nature exploration.

The New Children's Museum and Preschool are located at 950 Trout Brook Drive in West Hartford and Roaring Brook Nature Center is located at 70 Gracey Road in Canton. Visit www.TheChildrensMuseumCT.org for more information.

For sponsorship opportunities for The New Children's Museum and Roaring Brook Nature Center, or information regarding our current exhibits, please contact Melanie J. Cecarelli, Interim Director of Development at mcecarelli@thenewchildrensmuseumct.org

#

Editorial Contact:

Jennifer Toone, In Toone Communication

401-861-5052

jtoone@intoone.com