WEST HARTFORD, CT (October 24, 2016) – Out of respect and appreciation for our country's veterans and active-duty military personnel, The Children's Museum will waive admission for veterans and active military personnel and offer half-price admission for their guests from Friday, November 11 through Sunday, November 13. Planetarium tickets are available for $2.50 each.

Veterans and active-duty military personnel visiting the Museum from November 11 through November 13 need only show appropriate identification to receive free admission and discounted admission for their guests.

The Children's Museum is positioned as a premier STEAM education center, integrating science, technology, engineering, art, and math. Home to over 100 live animals, the Museum features hands-on science exhibits, out-of-this-world digital planetarium shows, and programs for young children and families.

The Children's Museum and Roaring Brook Nature Center are the region's premiere destinations for science and nature exploration.
