

The Children's Museum Elects Judith R. Rosenthal to Board of Trustees

WEST HARTFORD, Conn (June 30, 2016) – The Children's Museum announced that Judith R. Rosenthal has been elected to its Board of Trustees.

Rosenthal is a human resources and marketing professional who specializes in re-employment, recruitment, event management, and fundraising functions. Currently, she is the principal and owner of JRR Associates, which offers services in recruiting, organizational development, job counseling, and leadership training across a variety of industries. In addition to her strong professional leadership, Rosenthal has a great deal of civic work experience and a strong interest in education.

"I am very pleased to join the Board of Trustees of The Children's Museum," says Rosenthal, "For many, many years, it has played a key role in the education and development of Connecticut's children—a subject very dear to me. I am looking forward to helping guide and participate in its continued development and growth."

Rosenthal has a long history of leading community efforts and philanthropic endeavors. Among her many accolades, she was the recipient of the 2015 Human Relations Award from The National Conference for Community and Justice and the 2014 Family Champion Award from the Connecticut Council of Family Services.

Peter Stevens, Board Chair of The Children's Museum, expressed his excitement about Rosenthal's induction, stating, "We are so very happy Judith has agreed to join our Board. She brings a wealth of experience and perspectives that are vital to the success of an organization like ours."

Rosenthal has expertly served within key roles across several industries. In 2009, Rosenthal founded The Schmoozer Job Network, a non-sectarian program sponsored by Jewish Family Services of Greater Hartford, which has become the largest job search networking group in Connecticut. She continues to serve as the Volunteer Program Facilitator and Moderator for this program. Prior, Rosenthal worked as a philanthropy partnership associate at Saint Francis Hospital and Medical Center and held vice president and officer positions at The Clinipad Corporation, Konover and Associates and Canberra Laboratories. She earned both her BS and MS at Columbia University.

The Children's Museum and Roaring Brook Nature Center are the region's premiere destinations for exploration and education. Home to over 100 live animals, the Museum features hands-on exhibits, out-of-this-world digital planetarium shows, and programs for young children and families.

The Children's Museum and Preschool are located at 950 Trout Brook Drive in West Hartford and Roaring Brook Nature Center is located at 70 Gracey Road in Canton. More information is available at www.TheChildrensMuseumCT.org.

###

Editorial Contact:

Tessa Rickart

(860) 231-2830 x320

trickart@thechildrensmuseumct.org