

Camper Behavior Contract

All campers are expected to:

1. Responsible for modeling good behavior for other campers. This includes: having respect for their teachers, fellow students, museum animals and museum property at all times so that they are not disrupting the activities planned for the day.
2. Speak at appropriate times at an appropriate volume and in a polite and kind way both towards their teachers and fellow campers.

Consequences for failing to meet these expectations:

1. Students will be gently reminded of these expectations and encouraged to follow them.
2. If an issue continues after a camper has been spoken to during a camp session, or a camper is deliberately acting in a way to disrupt a camp session, their parent/guardian will be notified that day and asked to pick up their child.
3. More serious issues will be dealt with on a case by case basis after a discussion with a campers parents/guardians about appropriate consequences up to and including possible dismissal from the program.
